2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 DMA is an authorised financial services provider in terms of the Financial Advisory & Intermediary Service Act 37 of 2002 and regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority. As an authorized Financial Service Provider, with Financial Services Provider number 40983.
- 2.2 This manual has been prepared, as required by section 51 of PAIA, for the specific entity, being DMA. PAIA gives effect to the constitutional rights of access to any information held by a public or private body that is required for the exercise of the protection of any rights.
- 2.3. DMA is committed to ensuring that all business is conducted in accordance with good business practice and relevant legislation. In order to promote effective governance, it is necessary to ensure that all affected parties are educated and empowered to understand and access their rights in terms of PAIA, where applicable.

- 2.4 The objective of this PAIA Manual is to outline a suitable approach and response to requests to access information and the essential procedural requirements attached to such requests. This PAIA Manual should be read in conjunction with POPIA and DMA's policies in respect of POPIA, where applicable.

3. PURPOSE OF PAIA MANUAL

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to-

- 3.1 check the categories of records held by a body which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- 3.2 have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the body, by providing a description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- 3.3 know the description of the records of the body which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 3.4 access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- 3.5 know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- 3.6 know if the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.7 know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.8 know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;

3.9 know if the body has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and

3.10 know whether the body has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

5. GUIDE ON HOW TO USE PAIA AND HOW TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THE GUIDE

- 5.1. The Regulator has, in terms of section 10 (1) of PAIA, as amended, updated and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA (“Guide”), in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.
- 5.2. The Guide is available in each of the official languages and in braille.
- 5.3. The aforesaid Guide contains the description of-
  - 5.3.1. the objects of PAIA and POPIA;
  - 5.3.2. the postal and street address, phone number and, if available, electronic mail address of-
    - 5.3.2.1. the Information Officer of every public body, and
    - 5.3.2.2. every Deputy Information Officer of every public and private body designated in terms of section 17(1) of PAIA<sup>1</sup> and section 56 of POPIA<sup>2</sup>;
  - 5.3.3. the manner and form of a request for-
    - 5.3.3.1. access to a record of a public body contemplated in section 11<sup>3</sup>; and

<sup>1</sup> Section 17(1) of PAIA- For the purposes of PAIA, each public body must, subject to legislation governing the employment of personnel of the public body concerned, designate such number of persons as deputy information officers as are necessary to render the public body as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records.

<sup>2</sup> Section 56(a) of POPIA- Each public and private body must make provision, in the manner prescribed in section 17 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, with the necessary changes, for the designation of such a number of persons, if any, as deputy information officers as is necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities as set out in section 55(1) of POPIA.

<sup>3</sup> Section 11(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to a record of a public body if that requester complies with all the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

- 5.3.3.2. access to a record of a private body contemplated in section 50<sup>4</sup>;

- 5.3.5. the assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- 5.3.6. all remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging-
  - 5.3.6.1. an internal appeal;
  - 5.3.6.2. a complaint to the Regulator; and
  - 5.3.6.3. an application with a court against a decision by the IO of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body;
- 5.3.7. the provisions of sections 14<sup>5</sup> and 51<sup>6</sup> requiring a public and private body, respectively, to compile a manual and how to obtain access to a manual;
- 5.3.8. the provisions of sections 15<sup>7</sup> and 52<sup>8</sup> providing for the voluntary disclosure of categories of records by a public and private body, respectively;

<sup>4</sup> Section 50(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to any record of a private body if-

- a) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- b) that person complies with the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and
- c) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

<sup>5</sup> Section 14(1) of PAIA- The information officer of a public body must, in at least three official languages, make available a manual containing information listed in paragraph 4 above.

<sup>6</sup> Section 51(1) of PAIA- The head of a private body must make available a manual containing the description of the information listed in paragraph 4 above.

<sup>7</sup> Section 15(1) of PAIA- The information officer of a public body, must make available in the prescribed manner a description of the categories of records of the public body that are automatically available without a person having to request access

7. DESCRIPTION OF THE SUBJECTS ON WHICH THE BODY HOLDS RECORDS AND CATEGORIES OF RECORDS HELD ON EACH SUBJECT BY DMA

7.1. The records reflected in the table below may be formally requested, in terms of the PAIA, but parts, or the whole, of the record may be subject to the grounds for refusal of access to records. Refer to the Guide on how to use the PAIA.

7.2. DMA reserves the right to refuse access to records if the processing of the record will substantially and unreasonably result in a diversion of its resources.

7.3. DMA reserves the right to refuse access to records that relate to the mandatory protection of:

- 7.3.1. privacy of a third party, who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- 7.3.2. commercial information of a third party, if the record contains trade secrets of the third party; financial, commercial or technical, information, which disclosure may cause harm to the financial or commercial, interests of the third party; and information disclosed in confidence by a third party to DMA, if the disclosure may place the third party at a disadvantage;
- 7.3.3. confidential information of a third party, if it is protected in terms of an agreement, or legislation;
- 7.3.4. safety of natural persons and the protection of property;
- 7.3.5. records that are regarded as privileged, in legal proceedings;
- 7.3.6. records that are personal information, in terms of the POPIA; and
- 7.3.7. commercial activities of DMA, including, but not limited to, trade secrets, financial, commercial, or technical, information and software platforms, or programmes, exclusively developed for DMA.

7.4. DMA will refuse access if the requests are frivolous and/or vexatious.

7.5. The IO or DIO may grant access to a record if disclosing the record would reveal evidence of a material contravention of, or failure to comply with, any law, and the public interest in disclosing the record outweighs the harm contemplated in the relevant grounds for refusal of access to records.
